HIS HEALTH STILL FAILING.

A friend of Mr. Deisbach, who was until recently head druggist for W. B. Dunlap of this city, received a letter a few days ago from Mr. Deisbach at San Antonio, in which he says the doctors have advised him to go to El Paso on account of his failing health.

Mr. Deisbach has many friends here who will regret to learn that his health has not improved at the Alamo city.

A BIRTHDAY BANQUET.

Yesterday marked one of the mile stones passed in the road of life by Adolph Zwirn, and he celebrated the event after the play last night with a banquet to a few friends at the Harmony club rooms. The host, himself, a polished gentleman, and surrounded by friends of kindred spirit, made the event enjoyable and long to be remembered. There were toasts and wishes of long life and happiness to the host. Those present were J. J. Nathan, Morris Goldstein, Dr. Goldstein, Henry Roos, Isadore Feinberg, Mose Holland, B. Deutser and James Levine. The ladies were Misses Cipora Solinsky, Annette and Sophie Levy, Dora Hecla, Lilly Solinsky of Nashville, and Ada Feinberg.

Reliable Furniture.

A $30.00

Dining Room.

The furniture for this room has nothing of the cheap order about it. It makes an effective and artistic Dining room for a small family.

The Sideboard is of finely polished oak, good size, has fine French plait beveled mirror, cast brass handles and trimmings, a thoroughly good and satisfactory piece of furniture. Price $14.00.

The Extension Table is of solid oak 6 feet long and has carved claw feet, $6.

Four handsome Dining Room Chairs in oak, cost $4.00, and twelve yards of all wool Ingrain carpet at 55c amounts to $6.50. All complete only $30.00.

This furniture can be varied in style and pattern to suit one's individual taste at slight change in cost. We have an excellent line to choose from and at prices no one else can touch. Come and see us.
